

ATTORNEY

KATE MCCLYMONT

With nearly two decades of experience in complex corporate and commercial litigation, Kate specializes in property and trust disputes, insolvency matters, and other high-value commercial disputes. She regularly represents both individual and corporate clients in high-stakes litigation, including matrimonial finance disputes, where her background in commercial and trust litigation provides high-net-worth individuals with added value and confidence.

Kate has appeared before all levels of court in the Cayman Islands, from administrative tribunals to the Court of Appeal, and has acted as lead counsel in several precedent-setting cases. Her experience includes representing claimants and respondents in high-profile compulsory purchase and compensation matters, acting as counsel in landmark constructive trust dispute, and construction contracts claim as well as advising clients on large-scale insolvency proceedings, including cross-border asset recovery and fund liquidations.

Her recent work in high-profile administrative law cases has attracted positive media attention and the published client comments in Chambers & Partners show she is well regarded in the public arena and by her clients.

Kate also advises clients on all aspects of property and estate disputes, including construction, insurance, and strata matters. She has also represented major financial institutions, corporate entities, and high-net-worth individuals in asset protection, recovery, and security issues.

Kate joined Nelsons in 2022 after over a decade at another boutique firm in the Cayman Islands. She graduated from Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand with a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Arts. She was called as a Barrister and Solicitor of the High Court of New Zealand in 2005 and admitted as an Attorney-at-Law in the Cayman Islands in 2009. She is a member of the Cayman Islands Law Society, the Cayman Islands Family Law Bar Association, and the New Zealand Law Society (non-practicing).
