

ATTORNEY

SARA BRADY

Sara qualified as a Northern Irish Solicitor at Queens University Belfast in October 2020. Upon qualification, Sara worked at a large defence insurance litigation firm in Belfast, before relocating to Jersey in the Channel Islands in 2021, where she worked for just over two years as part of a wider dispute resolution team. Sara's experience covers a wide range of dispute resolution matters with a particular focus on defence insurance litigation.

Sara was admitted to the Cayman Islands Bar as an Attorney in April 2024 and since joining Nelsons Legal continues to act for insurance companies in Grand Court matters, growing our litigation department.
