

ATTORNEY

STEVEN BARRIE

Steven graduated from Dundee and Edinburgh Universities where he obtained an LLB and Dip LP. He was admitted as a solicitor in Scotland in 1983 and has practiced as an attorney at law in the Cayman Islands for 30 years.

Steven's practice includes the licencing and regulation of all types of entities involved in the provision of financial services in the Cayman Islands as well as advising on AML and Economic Substance Issues.

He advises on all forms of corporate commercial law, real estate, banking, the formation of investment funds, partnerships, immigration, and local business licencing and shipping matters.

His practice includes expertise in trusts where he advises onshore legal and tax advisors regarding the establishment of Cayman Islands trusts and their underlying corporate structures. He also advises a number of leading local and international trust companies on a broad range of trust administration issues.

He has represented both beneficiaries and trustees in contentious trust litigation before the Grand Court.

He has considerable experience in dealing with the variety of legal issues that arise when acting for clients with interests in a multiplicity of jurisdictions. He is an experienced legal practitioner with an in-depth knowledge of the issues affecting those who choose to do business in the Cayman Islands.
